Superior service

This program provides participating contractors with customized safety services designed to help create a safe workplace to reduce the potential of on-the-job accidents. In addition, the program provides these services:

- Comprehensive safety services including dedicated consultants, training resources and assistance in developing a safety culture
- Fast and easy eServices for 24/7 injury reporting, quotes, renewals, certificates, loss runs and payment processing
- Integrated claims and medical management services handled by experienced claims representatives and nurse case managers
- Flexible pay plans/multiple payroll service options
- Fraud prevention, detection and investigation services
- Competitive pricing

Minimum eligibility requirements

*Exclusively available to licensed MHI contractors. Accounts must meet minimum underwriting requirements for placement in Chesapeake Employers' standard or preferred rating tiers. Residual accounts are not eligible for new business placement in the MHI Program. MHI contractors with MHI Program class codes as the governing class are eligible for the program. Eligible tiers are defined within Chesapeake Employers' underwriting guidelines. Discounts provided by this program will not apply to out-of-state payroll. Other States coverage available per Chesapeake Employers' guidelines.
