Chesapeake Employers Insurance Welcomes Tisha S. Edwards, MSW, JD, as New Board Member

(TOWSON, Md.) — Chesapeake Employers' Insurance Company, Maryland's largest writer of workers' compensation insurance, welcomes Tisha S. Edwards, MSW, JD, to the Board of Directors, effective immediately.

Governor Wes Moore appointed Ms. Edwards to the Board and she will replace Board Member Martin G. Madden, whose term has ended.

Mark Isakson, Chesapeake Employers Insurance President & CEO, welcomed Ms. Edwards. "We are thrilled to welcome Tisha Edwards to our Board of Directors. Her extensive leadership experience and commitment to public service will be invaluable as we continue our mission to provide Maryland employers with reliable workers' compensation coverage."

"We also extend our deepest gratitude to Martin Madden for his many years of dedicated service and leadership on our Board," said Mr. Isakson. "His guidance and commitment have played a significant role in advancing our service to Maryland employers and their employees."

The Board plays a critical role in guiding Chesapeake Employers' mission and strategy. Seven of the nine Board members are elected by the company's policyholders, and two are appointed by the Governor of Maryland. Each member serves a five-year term, with the opportunity to serve up to two consecutive terms.
